

Flagship Journals from Duke University Press

in Humanities and Social Sciences

History of Political Economy

Quarterly | Founded in 1969

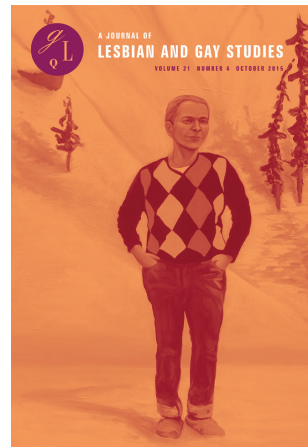

Focusing on the history of economic thought and analysis, History of Political Economy has made significant contributions to the field.

American Literature

Quarterly | Founded in 1929

Regarded since its inception as the preeminent periodical in its field, American Literature contains articles covering the works of American authors—from colonial to contemporary.

Philosophical Review

Quarterly | Founded in 1892

In continuous publication since 1892, the Philosophical Review has a long-standing reputation for excellence and has published many papers now considered classics in the field. The journal aims to publish original scholarly work in all areas of analytic philosophy.

GLQ: A Journal of Lesbian and Gay Studies

Quarterly | Founded in 1993

Providing a much-needed forum for interdisciplinary discussion, GLQ publishes scholarship, criticism, and commentary on sex and sexuality in areas as diverse as law, science studies, religion, political science, and literary studies.

Modern Language Quarterly

Quarterly | Founded in 1940

MLQ focuses on literary change from the Middle Ages to the present and reflects on the relationship of literary change or historicism to feminism, ethnic studies, cultural materialism, discourse analysis, and all other forms of representation and cultural critique.

Hispanic American Historical Review

Quarterly | Founded in 1918

Hispanic American Historical Review pioneered the study of Latin American history and culture in the United States and remains the most widely respected journal in the field.

For more information about the e-Duke Journals Scholarly Collection, please visit dukeupress.edu/libraries.

Emerging Scholarship from Duke University Press

TSQ: Transgender Studies Quarterly

Quarterly | Founded in 2014

TSQ offers a high-profile venue for innovative research and scholarship that contest the objectification, pathologization, and exoticization of transgender lives.

Public Culture

Three issues annually | Founded in 1988

For nearly thirty years Public Culture has been publishing field-defining ethnographies and analyses of the cultural politics of globalization.

positions: asia critique

Quarterly | Founded in 1993

Offering a fresh approach to Asian studies, positions employs theoretical and multidisciplinary methods in creating a provocative forum for vigorous debate.

Social Text

Quarterly | Founded in 1979

Social Text is a daring and controversial leader in the field of cultural studies, focusing attention on questions of gender, sexuality, race, and the environment.

Environmental Humanities

Two issues annually | Founded in 2012 | open access

In response to rapid environmental and social change, this journal publishes outstanding scholarship that draws humanities disciplines into conversation with each other, and with the natural and social sciences.

Journal of Middle East Women's Studies

Three issues annually | Founded in 2005

This interdisciplinary journal advances the fields of Middle East gender, sexuality, and women's studies through the contributions of academics, artists, and activists from around the world.

World Policy Journal

Quarterly | Founded in 1983

World Policy Journal challenges conventional wisdom with new perspectives from distinguished and emerging thinkers from around the world on crucial but often underreported world issues.

For more information about the e-Duke Journals Scholarly Collection, please visit dukeupress.edu/libraries.

eDuke
JOURNALS

DUKE
UNIVERSITY PRESS